The International Harvester Company (IHC) has been building its own proprietary truck engines since the introduction of their first truck in 1907. International tended to use proprietary diesel engines. In the 1970s, IHC built the DVT 573 V-8 diesel of 240 and 260 hp (179 and 194 kW) but these were not highly regarded and relatively few were sold.

Ok this might be a question for Mr. burmuda Ken ...Why did International use the model number 666 ? I know not the best number to use for Biblical reasons too but I just wouldn't think that would have been good marketing on IH's part. Did this draw any bad publicity ? Did the IH 666 sell well ? IH made this tractor from 1972 to 1976 so not a real long production run but longer than some tractors.
