At 7 pm last Thursday, I reached a packed hall at Delhi's India International Centre (IIC) to attend Speak For Aarushi—an event organised by the newspaper Mumbai Mirror and Penguin Random House, the publishers of Aarushi, Avirook Sen's recently released book on the infamous murder. I was determined to leave with a copy from the well-positioned kiosk outside the hall—impressed by the ...

Why I Won't Be Reading Avirook Sen's Book
Avirook Sen's book backs up my gut feel regarding Aarushi. The UP Police who commenced the investigation assume that Aarushi led a "loose" lifestyle with many boyfriends. The fourteen year old was actually no different from any other fourteen year in this day and age in a big city like Delhi and her male friends were just that, friends.
