If you have many other breather mods (which, with the Altima, you would have to eliminate all your cats to really need this), you need a tune to recalibrate everything. For you 2.5 guys, you actually have a way to eliminate all your cats, so if you do header, test pipe, and intake, a tune is a pretty good idea. ...

The difference is the service engine light is on. On Nissan Altima we have the usual maintenance required light or check engine light. However this says service engine soon.which is entirely different. I have never seen the light like this I wish I knew what it meant. Going to run diagnosis tomorrow.

The service engine soon light means the same thing as the check engine light. I believe GM also calls it service engine soon @CLD for future reference, the check engine light (or SES, or whatever you want to call it) doesn't really come on for no reason. The fact that the mechanics couldn't find anything wrong didn't mean that everything was okay at the time that it did come on.
