In France, the siege of La Rochelle ends with the massacre of thirty thousand men, women and children. Almost two centuries later, in 1788, John Lemprière published his classical dictionary. This much is fact. Lawrence Norfolk tells us how the first two events led, inescapably, to the third.

Lempriere's Dictionary | Grove Atlantic

Lawrence Norfolk's novel is a dizzying ride through the literature, geography and mythology of antiquity, and also the tumbled landscape of 18th century Europe, by unguessable paths that, at times, were a bit opaque to this reader. The fascinating story, however, drew me back over and over.
