Michael Crummey (Author of Sweetland) - Goodreads

Michael Crummey is a poet as well as a novelist, and his ear for language is keen. I felt, while reading, that I had travelled to the edge of the world, and lived there for a time in the company of a truly interesting and companionable (if irascible) character.

Sweetland Summary & Study Guide - www.BookRags.com

Soon, all that will remain will be a ghostly assembly like the one that closes Michael Crummey's Sweetland— a scene reminiscent of some of David Blackwood's bleaker prints, first understood as memorial but now revealed as prophecy. Crummey's latest novel left me with a sadness I have trouble translating into words.
