If they were doing so well they wouldn't be on Amazon buying the neatest little guide to stock market investing lol. Take them with a grain of salt, don't be afraid to learn from this great book. Good Luck :)

The Neatest Little Guide to Stock Market Investing

Staging a house while living in it would undoubtedly be easier without family members to undo all of your hard work, but it can still be done. The best way to start is to set a time for an initial deep-clean of your home, followed by mapping out some smaller cleaning tasks that can be conquered daily thereafter.

Buy low, sell high is a common investment aphorism but it is just as legitimate to buy high, sell higher. Expressed as a percentage, the difference between your purchase price and your sell price is your return. For example, if you buy a stock at $30 and sell it later for $60, your return is 100 percent.
