TouchStone For Play leaves the reader with a bit of a cliffhanger and the foreboding assumption of what will soon come to pass. I immediately started book two: TouchStone For Giving, and you will want to as well. Don't pass up this beautifully written story. Especially if you have a passion for music and poetry.

Touchstone Television Logo History (#219)

TouchStone For Play ended with an edge-of-your-seat cliffhanger, one where you were certain of what would happen on the first page of the next book. This was just the beginning of the unpredictability of this story. Secrets and mysteries were spoon-fed in tiny increments, not only to the reader but also to Beth, the female main character.
