Willa of the Wood Book Review - Rachel A. Greco

An orphaned forest girl, Willa scavenges for her own existence and that of her clan, the Faeran people, taking from the woods around her and stealing into the homes of the “day-folk” living in the Great Smoky Mountains during the heyday of the timber industry. “Willa is a mysterious, 12-year-old girl with special powers,” Beatty says.

Willa of the Wood - Robert Beatty Books

Willa Of The Wood is a phenomenal story. Fantasy mixed with reality that will keep you up all night, turning pages. Once I started reading I wasn't able to put it down. Robert does a great job at drawing the reader into Willa's world. A beautiful world where the environment is cherished by Will who is a night-spirit.
